THE INCEPTION OF KOLLYWOOD'S LEGACY

Four former chief ministers of Tamil Nadu - C. N. Annadurai, M. Karunanidhi, M. G. Ramachandran and V. N. Janaki, all have one thing in common. They all started their journey at Central Studios in Singanallur, a legendary yesteryear destination of cinema and Tamil Nadu's first studio. Up until 1960s, Coimbatore was Kollywood since most South Indian movies were made in plenty of popular film production houses in this city and Central Studios enjoyed the most buzz of them all.

And now, this destination that holds a special place in the hearts of Coimbatoreans opens its arms to 16 privileged families to own an unmatched villa lifestyle.

A BREEZY RENDEZVOUS WITH MEDITERRANEAN LUXURY

Located right at the former Central Studios, just 2 mins off Trichy Road, Infinium Central 16 is a collection of 16 ultra-luxurious Mediterranean villas inside an exclusive boutique gated community. A hub of activity and the centre of the city, this prime location offers the best of connectivity and proximity to important landmarks and amenities.

Heavily inspired by the timeless elegance of Mediterranean architecture, these villas are designed to look both classic and contemporary. Each sublimely crafted villa comes with 4 spacious bedrooms and roomy living spaces complete with the most premium specifications.

Mediterranean architecture focusses on indoor-outdoor living, bigger spaces, maximising natural light and breezy interiors. These key elements make it a perfect choice for Coimbatore's climate and offers discerning customers the perfect mix of greenery, luxury and uncompromising quality. When it comes to entertainment, just 16 families get to access the luxurious clubhouse with features like indoor games room, indoor gym, party hall and many more.
